

Copyrights and Licensing Policies

Kazspire ensures that all published content respects intellectual property rights while promoting open and ethical dissemination of research. Copyright

- Authors retain the copyright of their work while granting the journal the right to publish and distribute the manuscript.
- Authors are required to complete a copyright transfer or license agreement upon acceptance of their manuscript.
- All published content is protected under applicable copyright laws, ensuring proper attribution and legal protection for authors.

Licensing

- All articles are published under the Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY 4.0) license.
- This license allows users to share, copy, redistribute, remix, adapt, and build upon the material in any medium or format, including commercial use, provided appropriate credit is given to the original author(s).
- Authors maintain the right to use their work in other publications, presentations, or projects while adhering to licensing terms.

Permissions and Reuse

- Any reuse of the published content beyond the license terms requires permission from the copyright holder (the author).
- The journal encourages ethical and responsible reuse of content while ensuring recognition of the authors' contributions.

Compliance with Funding Policies

- Kazspire's copyright and licensing policies are designed to help authors comply with open-access mandates from major funding agencies worldwide.
- Authors can freely share their work in repositories, on personal websites, or through institutional archives while maintaining compliance with licensing terms.