

Editorial Guidelines

Originality & Relevance

Submissions must be original, unpublished, and directly relevant to the scope of the journal.

Formatting & Style

Manuscripts should follow the prescribed format, including citation style, word count, and structure, as mentioned in the submission instructions.

Clarity & Language

Authors are expected to present their work in clear, concise, and grammatically correct English. Proper academic tone should be maintained throughout.

Ethical Standards

All submissions must comply with ethical research practices, including appropriate citations, avoidance of plagiarism, and acknowledgement of funding or conflicts of interest.

Review Process Compliance

Authors must cooperate with the peer review process by addressing reviewer feedback and making revisions where necessary.

Transparency in Data & References

Authors should provide accurate data, references, and sources to support their claims. Any manipulated or falsified data will lead to rejection.

Editorial Decision

The Editor reserves the right to reject, accept, or request revisions of manuscripts at any stage. The decision will be based on quality, originality, and relevance.
